

Name: _____

period _____

MyEnglishClass.us — An Introductory Web Quest for English Honors 9

Directions: Open a browser window to www.myenglishclass.us, and complete this web quest in pen or pencil in complete sentences in the back of your writer's notebook.

- (1) What is the smallest size writer's notebook permissible in English class this year?
- (2) What is due September 23?
- (3) What are all the due dates for book reviews this year?
- (4) What is recommended for computer work in this class and others?
- (5) What are the two novels we'll read in class this year? Use your resourcefulness to find out and include the authors of these novels in your answer.
- (6) In weighted order, list from heaviest to lightest the scoring areas that make up your English class grade each quarter. Don't forget to include the percentages for each in your complete sentence.
- (7) What are the five areas that encompass your class participation grade?
- (8) What are the three parts that make up your writer's notebook grade?
- (9) What percentage deduction do you receive if an assignment is two days late?
- (10) In which three kinds of files can you view or print weekly assignment sheets?
- (11) A 21 out of 26 points on an English class assignment is a .807 or 81 percent. What is the rounded percentage score of an assignment the gets 25 out of a possible 30 points?
- (12) Name the page that features some of our classroom literature in an audio format.
- (13) During which periods is Mr. Stratton free the first half of the year? Are you free any of those periods?
- (14) Click on Find Great Books. Click on Rhode Island Teen Book Award. Which of the top 10 titles for 2010 are available in our library? You'll have to use online library catalog to find the answer. In your complete answer, include the titles and authors of books that are both checked in and checked out.
- (15) How many books specifically from the classroom library are you required to read this year?
- (16) What is the website for which you will be creating and maintaining content this year?
- (17) Visit the web site in the answer above. What are five sub-genres listed under the broad genre Fiction in the navigation bar at the top?